A. Payment of vouchers #8859 through #8903- Crass/Bishop motion to approve. Motion passed 3-0

Shar Kirsch with the Tomahawk School District presented information regarding the re-apportionment of the school board. She left information regarding the change and upcoming community discussion dates.

Cemetery: It was decided that one burial and three cremains or four cremains will be allowed per lot. There will only be one headstone allowed per lot. The cemetery fee sheet was also updated for the placement of cremains in a headstone/monument. The new fee sheets will be mailed to both funeral homes, the monument company as well as the cemetery sexton.

Road Report:

- Lincoln County highway department will be doing the small bridge/culvert inspections for the Town of Bradley.
- Wood cutting took place on the shared property off Greenbox Road. This property is shared between the Town of Bradley and the City of Tomahawk. Cutting was done without the towns knowledge and the request has now been made to split any profit 50/50 that is made off the wood.
- Proposals will be going out on March 12th for blacktopping, pulverizing, grubbing, routing/crack filling and sealcoating/stripping. This will include the Town Hall parking lot as well as the boat landing off Frontage Road.

Other business not requiring board action: None

As there was no other business the meeting was adjourned at 5:51PM.
