Budget Hearing

Chairman Jack Huston called the Budget Hearing to order. Present were Supervisors Joan Hilgendorf, Bill Jelinek and Kevin Koth. There were ten landowners present.

Changes to the budget were explained.

Harry Gladwin questioned why the budget had not been made available before the meeting. The clerk stated that there had been copies on the counter in the hall for at least three weeks and that it had been published in the paper two weeks before the budget meeting.

Hal Schrage asked where the money was going to come from for the Friends of Lake Mohawksin donation request of $2,000.00. The clerk noted that the town has an ordinance that states that requests must be in by the September board meeting and that a budget also must be turned in. Neither of these was done.
