- 8) Plan Commission did not have a January meeting. The next meeting is February 26, 2018 at 6:30pm.
- 9) Waste/Recycling: Will keep an eye on the gauges on the compactors they seem to be filling up faster than what the gauge is reading.
- 10) Road Report: Will look into pricing on the service agreement for the grader before signing the contract, it increased significantly from the previous contract. WPS is looking at running a gas line under Cottage Road. It was approved to sign off on the request with the understanding that they will go down a minimum of 4 feet and be careful with the GEO mat that is down. Road workers will be attending a WPS training session here at the Bradley Town Hall on March 22nd at 2:00pm. The decision was made to move the two new road workers up from a six month probationary period to a three month probationary period. It was also agreed upon that any banked comp. time the guys are putting away from their overtime will be paid out at time and a half with the maximum of 120 hours being banked.
- 11) Any other business not requiring board action: Paul Zastrow will be doing our trapping for the Town when necessary. This is only done for Town of Bradley property not personal use.
- 12) Adjourn: 6:15pm
