Road Report: Cutting on Kings Road has been completed. Letters will be going out to the residents on Belliveau Road regarding any tree cutting that will be discussed at the February Board meeting. There was talk if it would be beneficial to purchase a mower so the town could keep up on the mowing of the shoulders, at this point that will be put on hold. Mohawksin, Ridge, Bayview and Eagle Road are at the top of the list for road work so they will be out marking trees in that area for cutting to prepare for future road work. Discussion was had on the need to look into replacing the five yard truck this will also be put on hold for now. Mr. Germano will be given a permit again to put gravel down on Tamarack Lane as he last did in 2015.

Items for February agenda: Blacktopping the parking lot near the trash/recycling compactors and working on the walls in the back shop area.

Other business not requiring board action: None

As there was no other business the meeting was adjourned at 6:08PM.
