Road Report:

- The BIL road funding project does not look like it will funnel down to counties or towns. This will be reserved for larger projects around the state. Road Consultant Byron Lange will wait for the final word from the County Commissioner.
- The road crew also invited any board members to ride with them when they plow so they can get an idea for the job and roads.

Other business not requiring board action: None

As there was no other business the meeting was adjourned at 5:51PM.
